

*KA*After the time of Moses and Joshua, Israel fell into a period of chaos where “everyone did as they saw fit” (Judges 21:25). Despite Israel's sin, God raised up Judges from among the people to lead them from rebellion to freedom, including Samson, Deborah, and Gideon. Join us for seven weeks as we study the judges and learn what to do, and maybe what not to do, as we lead the people through chaos today.

Week 4 Sermon Guide - June 16, 2024

Repeating the cycle (Judges 6:1-6)

1. Why are we so prone to keep repeating the same errors?

God sends a prophet (Judges 6:7-8)

Godly leaders begin by properly _____ their circumstances.

2. How can we better interpret our circumstances so that we get to the root cause?

God calls out Gideon (Judges 6:11-16)

Godly leaders remember that God is _____.

3. If God called you to a task like Gideon, what kind of excuses would you give?

4. How can remembering that God is with you give you confidence to obey God?

Gideon tears down one altar and builds another (Judges 6:25-27)

Godly leaders tear down false idols and _____ God alone.

5. What idols is God calling you to tear down?

Gideon seeks confirmation (Judges 6:36-40)

Godly leaders seek God's guidance with a heart of _____.

6. Read Romans 12:1-2. What does it mean to offer yourself as a living sacrifice, not conform to the pattern of this world, and be transformed by the renewing of your mind? How can this lead to knowing what God's will is?

God gives the victory (Judges 7:1-25)

Godly leaders let God take the _____.

7. When are you most likely to take credit instead of giving it to God?

8. What is something you can give credit to God for today?

Summer Events:

Vacation Bible School

Children ages 3 through 5th grade are invited to join us June 24-28 for an energetic week of Bible stories, songs, games, and so much more fun! Learn more and register your children today: thestory.church/summer

High School Apologetics Camp

At this camp (July 22-25), Pastor Eric will lead all current and incoming high school students through teachings and discussions based on the toughest questions and the biggest issues these young Christians face. Register: thestory.church/summer

Middle School Camp & Retreat

We have two awesome ways for incoming 6th-8th grade students to connect this summer - Christianity 101 Camp (July 22-25) and a Beach Retreat down in Galveston (July 26-28)! Learn more & register: thestory.church/summer